

Scottish Curling – Seeding Information

2025 – 26 season

Mixed Doubles

This competition will be seeded using the teams from the previous seasons semi-finalists and above as long as the pair have remained in the same team.

Junior Championships

Qualifiers

This competition will be seeded using teams from the previous seasons championships event and will include semi-finalist teams and above as long as three or more players have remained in the same team.

Championships

This competition will be seeded from the qualifiers section winners.

Senior Championships

Qualifiers

This competition will be seeded using teams from the previous seasons championships event and will include semi-finalist teams and above as long as three or more players have remained in the same team.

Championship

This competition will be seeded from the qualifiers section winners.

- Playing format will be that Section A will have Q1 & Q3 from Qualifiers Sections A and C, with Q2 from Sections B and D.
- Section B will have Q1 and Q3 from Qualifiers Sections B and D with Q2 from Sections A and C.

This was to avoid the same teams that played each other in the Qualifiers, being placed in the same groups in the Championship, and gives two of each level of qualified team in the Section, i.e. 2 x Q1, 2 x Q2 and 2 x Q3.

Mixed

This competition will be seeded using teams from the previous seasons championships event and will include semi-finalist teams and above as long as three or more players have remained in the same team.

Junior Mixed Doubles

Qualifiers

This competition will be seeded using teams from the previous seasons championships event and will include semi-finalist teams and above as long as three or more players have remained in the same team.

Championships

This competition will be seeded from the qualifiers section winners.

Senior Mixed

This competition will be seeded using teams from the previous seasons championships event and will include semi-finalist teams and above as long as three or more players have remained in the same team.

Masters Championships

Qualifiers

This competition will be seeded using teams from the previous seasons championships event and will include semi-finalist teams and above as long as three or more players have remained in the same team.

Championships

This competition will be seeded from the qualifiers section winners.

- Playing format will be that Section A will have Q1 & Q3 from Qualifiers Sections A and C, with Q2 from Sections B and D.
- Section B will have Q1 and Q3 from Qualifiers Sections B and D with Q2 from Sections A and C.

This was to avoid the same teams that played each other in the Qualifiers, being placed in the same groups in the Championship, and gives two of each level of qualified team in the Section, i.e. 2 x Q1, 2 x Q2 and 2 X Q3.

Pairs Championships

This competition will be seeded using teams from the previous seasons championships event and will include semi-finalist teams and above as long as three or more players have remained in the same team.

Asham U17 Slam

This competition will be seeded from the overall leaderboard after each slam event and the top eight teams participating in the next Slam will be seeded.

Asham U21 Slam

This competition will be seeded from the overall leaderboard after each slam event and the top four of each gender participating in the next Slam will be seeded.